Mr. Harold Saunders

STAT

Dear Mr. Saunders:

We are pleased that you have found time in your busy schedule to accept [redacted] invitation to talk to our Seminar on Intelligence and National Security Policy. The session in which you will participate will meet on Thursday, 18 April 1985, from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. It will be the third of four sessions on the role of intelligence production during the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations, which will be attended by about a dozen CIA Senior Intelligence Service Officers mainly from production components of the Agency. Enclosed, for your information, is the reading list which has been sent to each attendee.

STAT

We have invited Mr. William Parmenter to join you in a discussion on The Arab-Israeli War of 1967. The format of the Seminar will be much the same as those in which you participated last year. [redacted] will ask you to describe what the policymakers' needs were before, during, and after the war and how well they were served. Mr. Parmenter will be asked to comment on the subject from the point of view of CIA's production components. We hope you can provide some insight into the policymakers' reaction to the attack on the Liberty. If time permits, [redacted] wants to relate this event to the capture of the Pueblo, which had a similar mission.

STAT

We have asked Mr. Parmenter to call you about the Seminar. You and he may make any mutually agreeable arrangement for the session. The meeting will conclude with a discussion period of 20 to 30 minutes.

As before, you should plan to be at the CIA Headquarters Building by 4:30. Please enter the Main Gate off Route 123, park in the visitors' parking lot, and go directly to the Main Reception Area, where a member of our staff will meet you and take you to the Seminar room.

An honorarium of $175.00 has been arranged for your time and expenses.

We assume that your employer has no objection to these arrangements for your participation.

If you have any further questions, feel free to call [redacted] Thank you again for participating.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
